

Aaron Daffern is the Coordinator for Instruction and Assessment for Arlington Classics Academy. He received his Masters of Education in Educational Leadership from Tarleton State University in 2007. Prior to that, he received a Bachelor of Arts from California Baptist University in 1999 with a double major in Religion and History. He is certified in the state of Texas in the areas of Principal (EC-12), Elementary Self-Contained (1-6), and English as a Second Language (1-6).

Mr. Daffern has worked in the Arlington and Castleberry Independent School Districts as a teacher for 11 years prior to joining the ACA family in 2011. His experience includes teaching 3rd, 4th, and 6th grades. He served as Assistant Director of Education of ACA Bowen for 6 months and as Acting Director of Education of ACA Bowen for 6 months in the 2011-2012 school year. From 2012-2014 he served as the Principal of the Bowen Intermediate Campus (grades 3-5). He began in his current role in the fall of 2014.

Born and raised in California, Mr. Daffern was brought to the Lone Star state because of a beautiful Texas native whom he married. They now have three children who all attend ACA. Mr. Daffern is an avid sports nut and closely follows the Rangers, Mavericks, and Cowboys.
